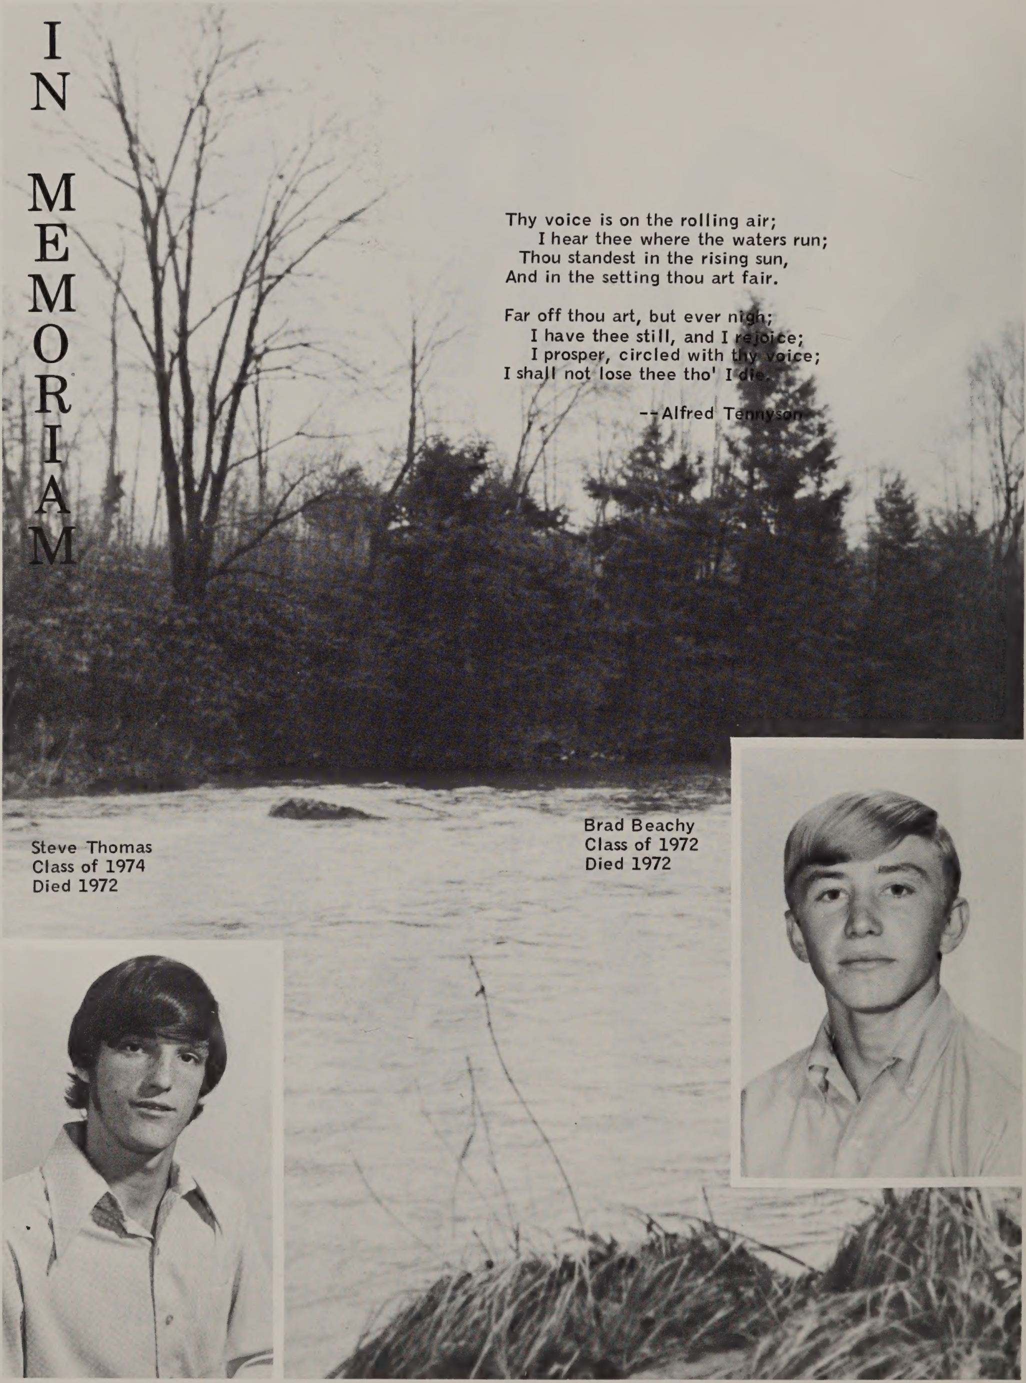
IN MEMORIAM



Thy voice is on the rolling air;
I hear thee where the waters run;
Thou standest in the rising sun,
And in the setting thou art fair.

Far off thou art, but ever nigh;
I have thee still, and I rejoice;
I prosper, circled with thy voice;
I shall not lose thee tho' I die.

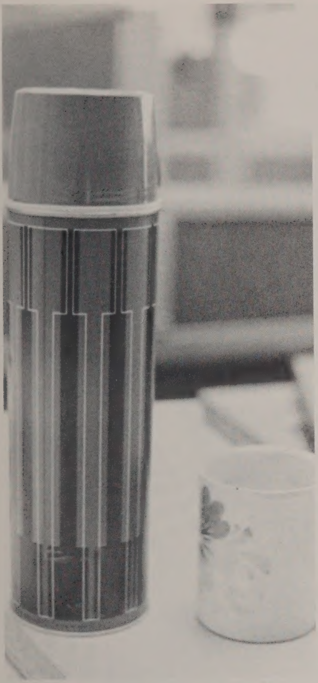
REMEMBER THE YEAR

First comes Orientation Day when, as a sixth grader, you get your first glimpse of the high school environment. Exciting, but not impressive. Then, you become a part of the action, an actual member of the secondary educational system. The excitement of seventh grade overwhelms you, but you learn to adjust, and before long you find yourself halfway through the second year of Jr. High. Then you come up against another milestone; the crossing over into Sr. High territory. In ninth grade your course of studies becomes important as preparation for college, a job, or secretarial career. Tenth grade looms before you and soon Mr. Sines is tearing out his hair as he braves your first attempt behind the wheel. Rings are the thing in your Jr. year and the prom isn't bad either.



Then it hits you, and as you pick yourself up off the floor, you realize you're finally a Senior. The struggle and tedious demands of the past five years become superficial as you walk proudly through the halls. Your victories and defeats serve only to help you develop into the adult that you are. You walk with your head in the clouds till that day when you begin to seriously ponder whether you are ready for that awe-inspiring world outside of high school, or possibly whether it's ready for you. Uncertainty arises, flavored with that ever present, distinctive taste of eager curiosity. And you walk out into the world with outstretched arms, only to see much that needs done; but you accept the challenge and you know that you will succeed.

The 1973-74 North Star yearbook staff would like to give special recognition to two great artists who were essential to the completion of our yearbook this year. Elaine Schlosnagle creatively used our theme of growth through the six years of high school, and into it incorporated the colors and flower of this year's graduating class for the cover of our book. Vonda Teets, with the help of Elaine, expanded the theme to include the division pages, picturing the separate levels of this growth. Their help was gratefully appreciated.

Also, our thanks go out to each individual student in Northern High School for making this a memorable school year.

SCHOOL LIFE

SEPTEMBER 1973

Student from G.C.C. gave a silkscreening demonstration.

Students rushed back to school on the first day.

Jrs. were excited about ordering class rings.

Huskies moved down the field on a 15 yard penalty against Shade.

September began as many others had in past years. It was a reunion with friends whom we hadn't seen since June, new teachers, and new classes. Along with the new school year came our new football team led by Captains Stu Myers and Ron Blocher.

"Up against the wall, Linda?"

The Sr. Class elected officers.

Students and teachers all joined in the "Fight Song" at the first pep rally.

Students recieved a day off in mid-September due to the lack of water.

Drama and English classes went to Pittsburgh to see "Godspell."

"Got the beat?--So move you feet."

"Who fell in?"

Huskies prepared to battle Berlin.

Greg Kamp, Buddy Fauber, Jerry Louck, Bruce Opel, Ron Teets, and Tim Frazee all joined in a game of spaceball.

Mr. Gibson provided entertainment with his performance on the trampoline.

Near the end of Sept., assemblies were held for the Sammy Hall Singers and Mr. Gibson. Also, the Band members forfeited one of their precious Saturday's to travel to College Park for Band Day.

That's the way, Becky!

Sammy Hall set the mood for his performance with the song "Day By Day".

"Up, up and away!"

Sammy Hall Singers entertained students.

Bonnie Yommer represented Northern as Queen of the Autumn Glory Festival.

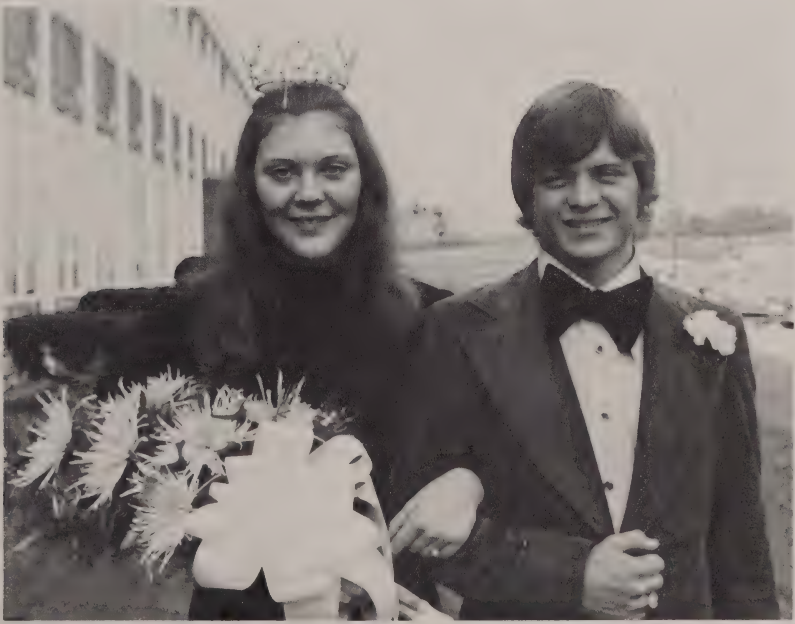
OCTOBER

Queen Bonnie Yommer, surrounded by her court, posed for a picture on the school lawn.

October was filled with many activities. The Autumn Glory Festival was a major event with plenty happening during that exciting weekend. Bonnie Yommer reigned as Queen over the festival, and our football team romped over Mountaineer 12-6, for their first victory of the season.

Serving as attendants for Queen Bonnie were Fayann Lewis, Tammy Humberson, and Paula Spear.

Bonnie Yommer greets the crowd as she reigns Queen of the Autumn Glory Festival.



Queen Bonnie and escort Darl Kolb are all smiles after the coronation held here at Northern High School.

HOMECOMING '73

The thrill of being chosen Homecoming Queen was captured in the expression on Donna's face.

Robin Butler and Patty Fauber were two of the ten members of the Pom Pom Girls who performed with the band for the first time at the Homecoming game.

The majorettes and band performed during half time.

The next week students received two days off as the teachers attended the State Teachers Meeting. The football team, fresh from last week's win, played Bishop Walsh in the annual Homecoming game. We lost the game 49-12, but the spirit of the evening remained as Donna Hinebaugh was crowned Queen and a dance followed the game.

Aren't homecoming games fun?

Donna Hinebaugh, Homecoming Queen, was proudly escorted by her brother, Greg.

The Huskie defense led by Ron Blocher, Mark Lawson, Stu Myers, Mark Frantz, Rick Durst, and Joe Wilhelm remained strong throughout the Bishop Walsh game.

OCTOBER held honor for the F.F.A. students as some of the members traveled to Kansas City where they received national recognition for their achievement in community development. The entire student body enjoyed a day at the movies as they watched the educational movie, "King Kong". Students outdid themselves selling magazines as they exceeded their goal by over $1,000.

The Jr. High Football Team eagerly looks forward to selling magazines.

Bea Mae Riggs served as Business Manager for the Magazine Campaign.

7-A and 12-C each received a dog for being the high homeroom.

Miss Miller carefully examined Linda Hinebaugh's proofs.

Mr. Glainer explained how to sell magazines to the students.

NOVEMBER

DURING November, the whole student body was involved in many varied activities. Football season drew to a close on a cold, snowy Saturday afternoon as Southern handed the Huskies a defeat ending Northern's season with a 1-9 record. With football season over, the basketball team and wrestling squad began practicing for their upcoming contests.

Joy, Gail, Karen & Bobbie struggled for control of the ball during speedball tournaments.

Our Senior Band saluted Veteran's Day on the 9th of November.

Skip & Dave Schwing prepared to raise the flag at the Veteran's Day salute.

All band and chorus members were once again honored to hear the Brass Quintet.

The Huskies built up their confidence as they scored a touchdown early in "The Game" against arch-rival Southern.

With 4th down, the Huskie offense lined up, confident they would make the necessary yardage for a 1st down.

THE yearbook staff was also bustling with activities during this month. In order to raise money, the yearbook staff canvassed students, faculty and residents of the outlying communities looking for prospective fruit-cake customers. Besides selling fruitcakes, the yearbook staff also held their annual auction in November. The whole student body joined in this event as they were all given the opportunity to bid for their favorite items. The "hottest" items for sale proved to be the live animals as they brought cries of "oohs" & "aahs" as well as lots of money from the audience.

The Huskie offense met in the huddle to discuss their plan for demolishing Southern's strong defense.

Ron Teats was stopped short of a first down by the Ram defense.

Mark Russell ran in for a quick flip.

IN early November, students gladly took one-half a day off as members of the faculty attended a teachers' meeting. Later in the month, students were given a two-and-a-half-day vacation to celebrate Thanksgiving Day. Along with the vacation, students were also rewarded with a juke box to be played during the lunch shifts. For the first few days, eager students crowded around the juke box, anxious to play their favorite songs. The juke box arrived just in time for the Dance Club to try it out at their first club meeting.

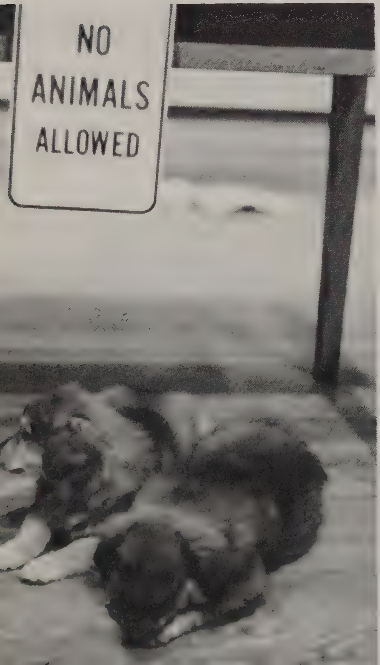
Rick Durst showed his gymnastic ability while trying to gain yardage in the snow.

Northern's defense hungrily awaited the attack of the Southern Rams.

YEARBOOK AUCTION

Raymond Bender skillfully conducted the auction.

"Did you ever get the feeling we aren't welcome here?"



"Who invited you?"

On the last day of the month, the Senior Class held it's annual Senior Party. "We May Never Pass This Way Again" was the theme for the party, and after all the food was consumed & everyone was exhausted from dancing, many Seniors felt like never passing this way again.

The yearbook staff couldn't keep the smiles off their faces as anxious students raised the bids higher & higher.

This fuzzy little kitten was just one of the many items sold at the auction.

Sandy Dice and Bonnie Yommer, along with other students and teachers, were forced to keep their coats on all day because there was no heat in the school.

Juniors were informed well ahead of time of the day they would get their class rings.

Chilled students anxiously watched for even a slight rise in temperature.

NOVEMBER was not all fun and games as it held some solemn moments, too. Early in the month, the band presented it's annual Veteran's Day Program.

Buddy Fauber looked over the choice of hit songs before he made his selection.

DECEMBER

Becky and DeAnn were handed their class rings.

Julie placed her order for announcements with Mr. Posey.

December was packed with activities. Early in the month Adv. Biology students from both Northern and Southern spent a week at Camp Hickory. They learned how to identify many winter twigs.

Carol discussed one of her many "adventures" while at Camp Hickory with friends from Southern.

The "great" Northern mat awaited a Husky victory.

JUNIORS reached that long-awaited day when their class rings finally arrived. Proud juniors could be seen everywhere comparing and admiring each others' rings and showing them off to envious underclassmen.

THE few Seniors who were interested, both boys and girls, took the Betty Crocker Search for the Homemaker of Tomorrow test.

THE wrestling and basketball teams both started their seasons with a win. The cagers beat Salisbury in a close game 52-50, and the grapplers romped over Allegany 42-24.

Ed Frazee attempted a field goal as the Huskies battled Salisbury in the first game of the season.

Doug Stanton, among other seniors, received his ACT scores from Mr. Malone.

Mike O'Brien took a pressured shot in the Salisbury J.V. game.

Grappler Tony Artice pinned his first opponent of the season.

The Cheerleaders, in an effort to revive school spirit, sponsored "Spirit Night", a competition among homerooms for highest turnout percentage at the first basketball game. It proved a success, as many students came, adding supporting screams and shouts to help the Huskies whip Salisbury 50-52.

"Button, button, who's got the button?"

SPIRIT ON THE LOOSE

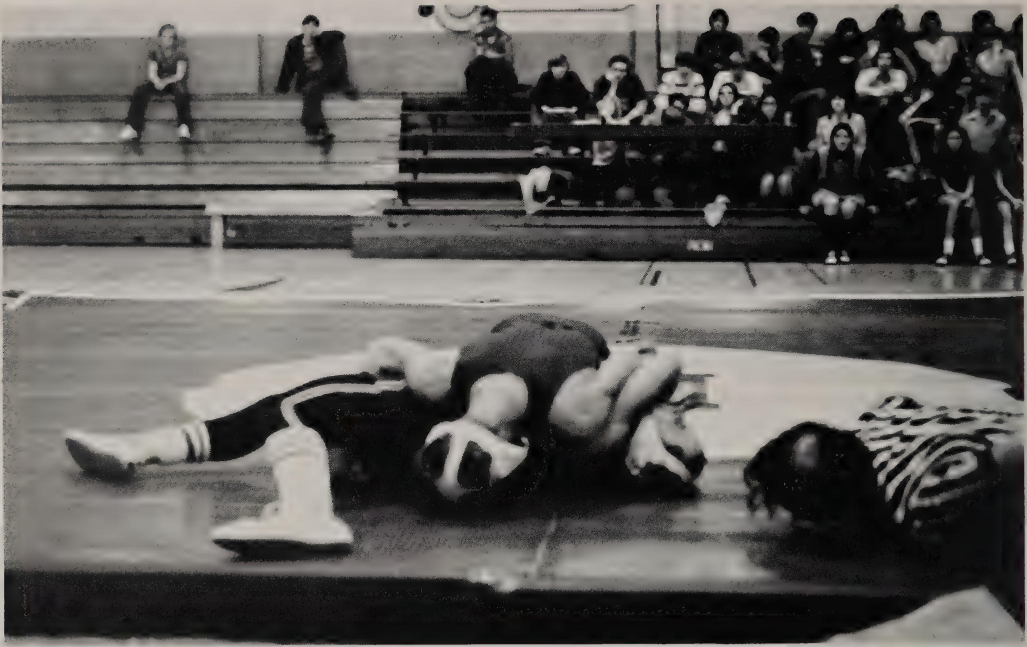
The Huskie Grapplers confidently awaited the outcome of the Northern-Allegany match.

Doug Kipp leaped to volley the ball to the opposite team in Phys, Ed. while playing volleyball.

Students shuffled through the halls during class change.

Northern grappler struggled to release his opponent's hold.

The wrestlers kept to their winning ways the rest of the month, but the basketball team lost the rest of their games to tough opponents. The girls' basketball team also started their season with an easy win over Southern 63-61.



Bruce Opel held an advantage over his opposing matman.

Randy Broadwater struggled for control of his opponent.

SPIRIT ON THE LOOSE AH-OH THE LOOSE

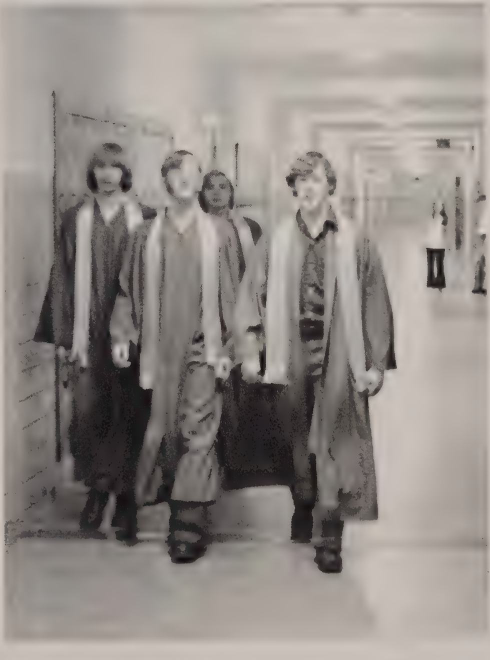
Tim Frazee sprang to volley another point.

DURING the middle of the month it finally snowed so much that school was closed early several days, including the last day before Christmas holidays. The whole student body and faculty were disappointed not to be able to see the Christmas program by the band and choruses.

Students were entertained on lunch shifts by Jim Wampler, Marvin Wengerd, Keith Beachy, Steve Morris, Greg Kamp, Ed Sisler, and Bill Thomas--or was it Juanita Wampler, Myrtle Wengerd, Kate Beachy, Stella Morris, Gertrude Kamp, Edna Sisler, and Wilma Thomas?

STUDENTS welcomed another extension to their Christmas holidays as the vacation was lengthened three days to help save fuel during the energy crisis.

The greenhouse protected the Christmas poinsettias from the blanket of snow that covered the outside world.

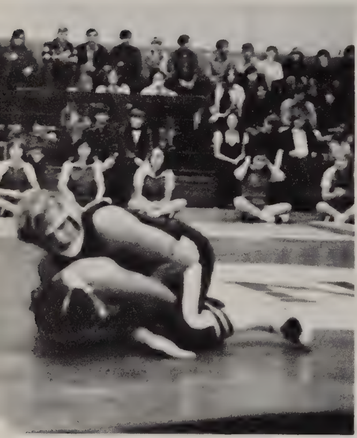


Charlie Bittinger, Keith Tacket, Randy Bittinger, and Kevin Hetz hide their disappointment after they heard that the Christmas program was cancelled.

JANUARY

JANUARY soared with action-packed basketball games and wrestling matches. Everybody got in on the action as students viewed the Oldtown basketball game and Southern wrestling match onschool time. With the entire student body behind them adding supporting screams, both teams pulled off victories. Added to their triumph over Turkeyfoot earlier in the week, the cagers savored the sweet taste of victory.

Wayne Blocher gained control of his opposing matman.



During the Valley wrestling match, Wilmer Warnick struggled to hold his opponent down.

Southern cheerleaders were frustrated, while those Northern fans awaited an approaching pin.

Craig Speicher anxiously awaited a chance to overthrow his opposing grappler.

Donna Hinebaugh pointed out how close we were to another Huskie pin in the wrestling match with Southern.

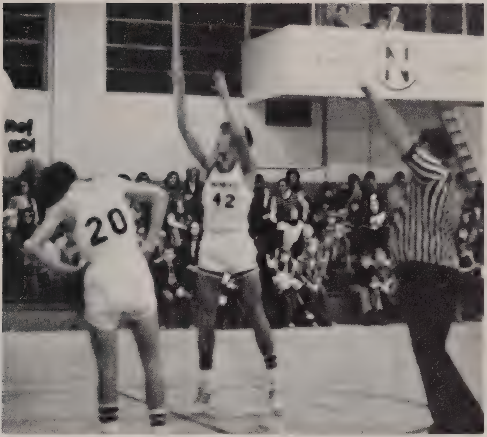
Mark Russell leaped to over-shoot his opposing bulldog's hand.

HOWEVER, the victories proved to be short and sweet as the Huskie cagers lost the last five games played in January. The victory over Southern by the Grapplers uplifted their "downtrodden" spirits as they had previously lost four of five matches during the month.

SENIORS ventured to the Wisp to try their hand at skiing, though many of them got a little "behind" in it too.



With arms outstretched, Ed aimed for another propelling shot.

Ed Frazee dropped in two points during our encounter with Bruceton.

Our team got ready for battle.

E LOOSE AH-ON THE

"Hands up on defense, Linda!"

Huskiettes took a time-out for strategy from Coach Benyak.

Kathy, Dee Ann, and Linda set up defense against Oldtown's female five.

Kim, Debbie, and Peggy waited for a rebound.

First string sat back and enjoyed the action.

Kathy Sines, Connie Pope and Karen VanSickle returned for refills during the Senior Tea.

Seniors had plenty of time for just sitting around gossiping at their tea.

Vonda Teets gulped down her fifth glass of punch as Brenda Broadwater laughingly urged her on.

Seniors, after wearing jeans for much of the year, dressed more formally for their Tea. The Home Ec. Department, sponsors of the Tea, served various cookies, candies, and punch to Seniors.

A class meeting highlighted the month for Sophomores as they elected the year's class officers: President Linda Wengerd, Vice-President Mike O'Brien, Secretary Sharon Broadwater, and Treasurer Tammy Humberson.

Margaret Ross served punch to thirsty Seniors.

Mary Jane Fike, Rachel Miller and Lynn Newman examined their new Senior keys.

The executive committee of the Sophomore class discussed plans of their yearly activities with Mr. Dively.

Linda Wengerd caught a little shut-eye while Tammy Humberson counted the votes of her fellow sophomores.

Hard-working members of our Yearbook staff diligently worked during Christmas vacation.

OTHER activities rounding out the month included the presentation of "The Horse in the Gray Flannel Suit" to the Jr. High for their outstanding salesmanship of magazine subscriptions. Our Senior Band performed at a G.C.C. basketball game; and an Antrim Bureau Show, "Liquid Air," had to be canceled.

FOR many students January began as a dark month as students were forced to board their buses before sunrise. After one week of darkness, students once again traveled during daylight as school opened and closed a half hour later than usual.

Gossip flourished during the Sophomore class meeting.

Linda Wengerd, Tammy Humberson, Mike O'Brien and Sharon Broadwater were elected as this year's class officers.

Varsity boys showed enthusiasm over demolishing a Ram "dummy" in symbolizing their hopes for victory that night.

FEBRUARY

Bea brewed up a winner.

FEBRUARY was welcomed in with a pep rally before the Southern game. A major happening in the month was the strike by Independent truckers which left schools vacant for a week. Wide-spread shortages over the area put Garrett County in the limelight after national news coverage.

BEA MAE RIGGS won top honors in the Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow test given to Seniors.

Trucks were forced off highways during the strike.

Girls held shuffleboard "tournies".

Students enjoyed the unexpected vacation because of strikers.

The judges compared notes.

THE girls basketball team lost their first game in triple overtime to the Oldtown girls. The same night, however, the Varsity boys were victorious over their Oldtown opponents.

THE annual Oratorical Contest was held in February. Contestants included Terri Georg, Kathy Harshbarger, Stan Schlosnagle, Skip Schwing, and Bonnie Yommer. Bonnie won here at the school and continued in the competition, winning at the Community College against a Southern competitor.

REPORT CARDS were given out to students this month.

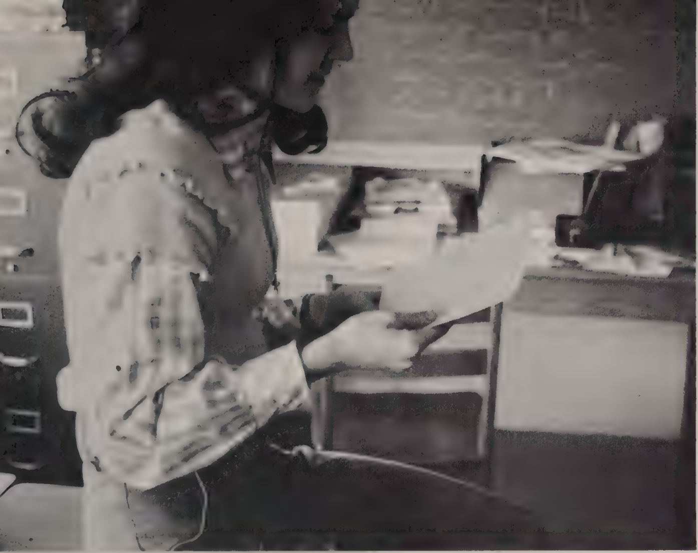
FEBRUARY news included the discovery of a pair of booted legs standing on Mr. Neville's radiator. These, as of yet, remain unclaimed.

Bonnie talked of our duties as Americans.

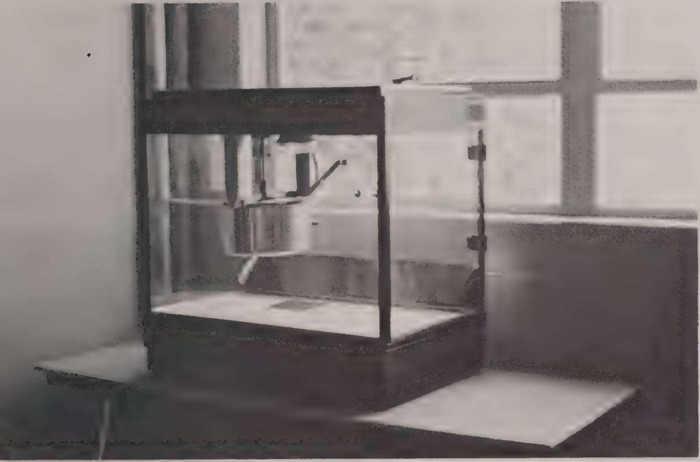
New sewing machines were installed in the Home Ec. dept.

"Won't someone give me a home!"

February managed to "spring" several days of beautiful weather on us.



Tammy fought back her ecstatic joy upon receiving her 2nd term grades.



The new popcorn machine added to the halftime confusion in the lobby.

Students were given tests concerning their opinions and values in different areas of human development.

"Hello, it's me."

Mrs. Richter replaced Mrs. Bender as ass't. librarian.

Mr. Yunker welcomed students into his second semester HD class.

WITH the ending of February Northern found six of its wrestlers in the Bi-County Tournaments held at Valley. Those winning by decision were Bruce Opel and Wilmer Warnick, by pin Blake Brenneman, and by forfeit, Steve Morris. Greg Kamp placed by default and Craig Speicher by second best record. Only one grappler, Craig won at Districts with a 2-1 record, sending him to Regionals at Hagerstown, where he was decisioned 10-0.

Don Wampler wound up for a long jump shot in the Bruce game.

CLUB activities fired up enthusiasm among students. The FHA held a "Guess the number of candy hearts" contest. Kay Durst netted $10.00 in an exciting runoff between her and several other contestants. The History Club members sold flower bulbs in the communities in order to obtain funds. Mary Jane Fike, being the high salesperson, won a radio. The Horticulture class began their flower sales ahead of schedule because of the arrival of early spring weather.

Becky Beachy examined the early style phonograph in their studies of the Roaring 20's.

Craig worked on technique during those long hours of practice.

Southern players stood gasping as Mike O'Brien converted a foul shot.

The start of a hard-fought game.

Dave, good for two!

VARSITY TASTES LONG AWAITED VICTORY ON SOUTHERN COURT

CLUTCH foul shooting provided the key to an exciting three-point victory over arch-rival Southern, giving Northern a share of the Garrett County Championship and revenge over an earlier loss to the Rams. The Huskies, trailing by as much as ten points in the earlier going, rallied to take a third quarter lead and, with the aid of an enthusiastic backing, managed to come from behind several times in the late stages of the game to cap the thrilling win.

Greg Humberson leaped out of range of his Southern guard as he dropped in two more Huskie points.

Roger practiced his monologue with careful accuracy.

The majorettes dressed up some fine points for their

MARCH entered as a lamb, yet it was a busy month for students at the greenhouse and in the VIKING. Due to unusually warm weather, flowers bloomed ahead of schedule causing a push on flower sales. Members of the FFA and horticulture classes sold several types of flowers ranging from hyacinths to tulips. Mrs. Sines, eager to make the candy sales better than ever, hustled her "staffers" to do the job.

With a steady hand, Ernest Miller prepared for a daring new experiment.

Esther Maust sold a large assortment of FFA-grown flowers.

THE talent show contestants, anxiously awaiting their performance, diligently practiced acts varying from piano solos to comedy skits and instrumental numbers. Ernest Miller claimed the honor of attending the Chemistry Symposium at Baltimore for his excellence in chemistry. Mr. Keplinger accompanied him on the several day trip.

WITH the crack of the bat, basketball gave way to baseball. The girls' basketball teams in phys. ed. vied for top tournament placement, bringing basketball to a close.

Cheryl Peterson gained another rebound during phys. ed. tournaments.

Skip Schwing peddled candy bars to any willing buyers.

STUDENT TEACHERS

SEVERAL times this year, student teachers from Frostburg State College practiced their skills at Northern. In the fall, Mark Moxey worked with Mr. Yunker's classes, while Robert Baji assisted Mrs. Yunker in U.S. History. Again, in the spring, student teachers journeyed to Northern to teach various subjects. Ruth Boyle taught French in Mr. Nevelle's classes, Judy Rosa taught Mrs. Beachy's classes, Mr. Yunker turned his classes over to Steven Paul and Mrs. Yunker switched places with Linda Yinger. To all these aspiring teachers, GOOD LUCK!

CLASS PRAYER

Dear Father,

What shall we call ourselves? Does our enthusiasm and vitality mixed with recklessness make us children? Or does our wisdom and experience along with hardness put us among adults? And, Father, what name shall You give us? Will You remember our faults, our shortcomings and our hatreds and know us as "evil?" Or will You recall Your mercy and compassion and call us "forgiven?" We pray that You would know us as Your children!

Let us dream our highest dream, and work to see it come true, yet not live our lives in dreams, but rather live each day to its fullest, seeing every common object, smelling every sweet flower and delighting in every moment given us.

Teach us to accept ourselves, our talents and faults, and make the most of them, so that we also accept others, their talents and faults, and make the most of our relationship with them.

May we, Lord, always look down at ourselves in humility, look across this earth in brotherhood and look upward in faith to You.

Amen

CLASS HISTORY

Maybe it was just a skeptical dream, but somehow senior high seemed as if it would never open its doors. How slowly time seemed to pass! Then, with the election of sophomore officers, the skepticism changed to anticipation. Greg Humberson served as our president, with Jeff Layman, Donna Hinebaugh and Jon Platter filling the jobs of vice president, secretary and treasurer, respectively. Robin Thomas was selected as a Sr. majorette; Julie Livengood and Donna Hinebaugh became members of the cheerleading squad. The 10th grade Autumn Glory Princess, Kathy Russell, was escorted by Ron Blocher. Stu Myers represented our class in the Student Faculty Senate. Kim Bowman and Carol Glotfelty were chosen members of the color guard. Bea Riggs attended a National Science Foundation program at Wartburg College, Iowa. There were two varsity wrestlers during our sophomore year, Jon Platter and Rick Broadwater. Greg Humberson, Sam Opel, Stu Myers, Cliff Sisler and Ron Blocher were 10th grade football Lettermen. Greg and Ron also lettered in baseball. For a lot of sophomores, the most memorable event was probably the picnic at New Germany, where, fortunately, nobody decided to drown or freeze to death?!

Since time waits for no one, we suddenly turned a corner and found ourselves as juniors, ordering class rings, planning and earning money for the Senior's Prom and wishing we could fit into their shoes. Because of the new Early Graduation program, Nancy Frazee, Bennie Pook, Debi Kissner, and Dan Tice found themselves filling those senior shoes. Everyone else just had to endure or enjoy the coming year. To lead our anxious class, we elected Jon Platter, president; Dorien Friend, vice president; Linda Hollada, secretary; and Linda Hinebaugh, treasurer. Linda also joined the majorette squad and represented us as the junior princess in the Autumn Glory Pageant. Her escort was Mike Swauger. Carol Glotfelty and Lynn Newman were the recipients of the WOW History Award. The "Flying Fingers" Typing Award went to Kathy Maust. Linda Hinebaugh became the treasurer of the Band Council, and Carol Glotfelty served as 11th grade representative. Kathy Enlow became a member of the color guard. The Student Faculty Senate treasurer was Judy Humberson, with Jerry Louck representing the Junior class. Greg Humberson was the only junior to letter in three sports--football, baseball and basketball. All five of the sophomore football lettermen lettered again. Joining them in the junior year were Mike Swauger, Mark Lawson, Ron Brenneman and Barry Frazee. Basketball lettermen were Ed Frazee, Jeff Layman and Don Wampler, while Mike and Ron Blocher lettered in baseball. Northern's Heart Fund Queen for 1973 was Debi Thomas. "Peaceful Easy Feeling" was chosen as the Prom theme, and Connie Butler, class of '73 reigned as Queen. Several summer programs were accepted by juniors. The National Science Foundation Summer Institute made it possible for Skip Schwing to study marine science at the University of South Carolina and for Darl Kolb to pursue an interest in social science and methodology at Illinois State University. Kathy Russell attended a Chemistry Symposium and Kathy Thomas enjoyed an American Chemical Society Dinner. Elaine Schlosnagle and Karen Fauber were awarded full scholarships to a regional art camp at Emmitsburg, Maryland. Larry Coddington, Greg Eberhart, Skip Schwing, Terry Rinker, Mike Swauger, Don Wampler and Keith Tacket attended Boys State.

It didn't seem possible . . . Seniors?! President Kathy Russell led our class with Jon Platter serving as vice president; Fayann Lewis, secretary; and Kathy Thomas, treasurer. Other officers included Skip Schwing, parliamentarian and Karen Fauber, historian. The Autumn Glory Pageant honored Queen Bonnie Yommer and her court: Darl Kolb, escort, Fayann Lewis, Sr. princess, and her escort Rick Broadwater. Bonnie also won the American Legion Oratorical Contest. Homecoming Queen Donna Hinebaugh was selected as the cheerleader's captain, while Linda Hinebaugh became head majorette. The '74 NORTH STAR editor was Kathy Thomas. Nelson Yoder and Darl Kolb became co-editors of THE VIKING. Jerry Louck represented the seniors in the Student Faculty Senate with Darl Kolb serving as president. The Band Council was headed by President Don Wampler, Vice President Skip Schwing and Treasurer Lynn Newman. The 12th grade representative, Carol Glotfelty, also became captain of the color guard with Kim Bowman representing the color guard and majorettes. The chorus officers were Nelson Yoder, president; Jerry Louck, vice president; Pam Workman, secretary; and Keith Tacket, treasurer. "We May Never Pass This Way Again" was chosen theme for the senior party, and everyone knows "happiness is a senior tea!" Ron Blocher and Stu Myers, captains of the football team, earned letters along with Greg, Mike, Mark, Barry, Ron Brenneman and Greg Kamp. Ed Frazee and Don Wampler were co-captains of the basketball team. Darl Kolb and Greg Kamp were varsity wrestlers. Kathy Russell was selected captain of the girls' basketball team; she was also honored with a letter of commendation for her achievement in the National Merit Scholarship Test. Bea Riggs won the Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow Award. Skip Schwing was the alternate page to the Maryland General Assembly.

The class of '74 has prospered and endured many things. We've had good times and bad . . . "but it's the laughter we will remember whenever we remember the way we were."

ACCIDENT ELEMENTARY SCHOOL

Kathy managed to survive the year as illustrious editor of our noble yearbook.

Bruce finally saw the light.

THE MOODS AND FACES AT NHS

HOURS of study over; tests, assignments, term papers, are things of the past; yet, the really good memories of the past school year will remain forever in the faces of friends who helped our lives grow.

Pick yourself up, Fay, you're a Senior now. (See page 5).

Esther longed for an escape, but found the passage blocked by our roving photographer.

Mr. "Y" warned you not to throw that plane, Vonda.

John felt he could no longer face his lunch.

Green Machine

What I go through to be a star!

Things could be worse, Dave!

Smile, Stu, you're on Candid Camera.

"Why do I always have to stay after class?"

What was a nice girl like you doing with a crowd like that?

Barry Frazee got the point.

Mark,
Lots of Luck to a really nice guy. I'll always remember the time in English when you ended the story with Yuell Gibbons eating the kid. Have fun

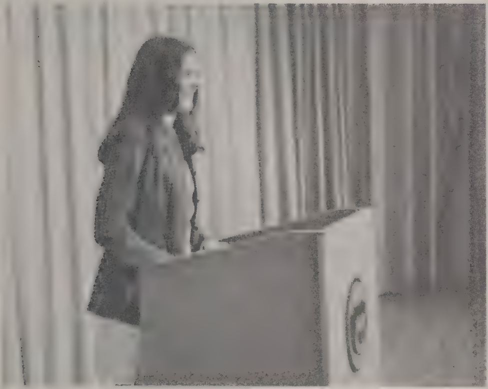
MARCH

ALONG with many other happenings in March, the band and chorus students were presented a program by Maynard Ferguson at G.C.C..

Budweiser
ANHEUSER-BUSCH INC

Winter Fest Queen, Sheila Buckel, rode behind The Clydesdale Team.

Bonnie Yommer won fourth place in the State Oratorical Contest.



The Fruit Floats, with their hilarious act, won Students' Choice in the talent show.

Pam was "On Top of the World" in the talent show.

John Groer and Rodney Spiker concentrated on first place.

The 9-D boys fought for--and won--the trophy for boys' basketball.

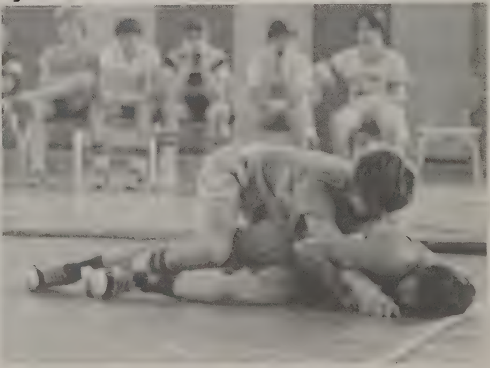
DOUGHNUTS were sold during the month to curb the appetite of hungry students. The growls of stomachs were nothing compared to the growls of our men faculty as they lost to Southern in a benefit game for the girls' basketball team.

9-B was just another name for girls' basketball champs.

Ann Rodeheaver and Stephanie Fratz jumped for the ball in a tournament game between 9-B and 8-A.

DeAnn's champs played bend and stretch.

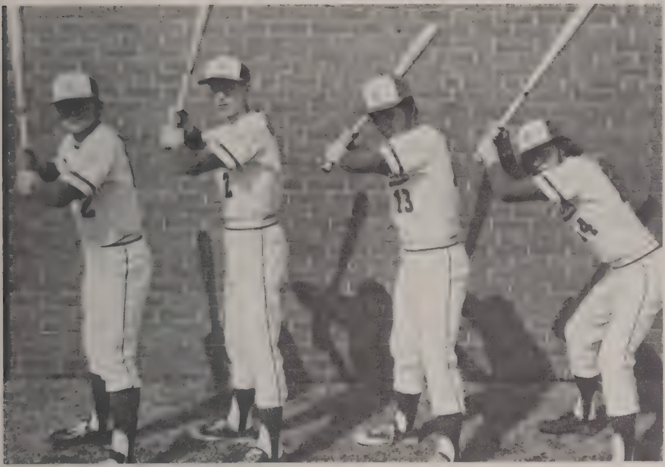
Bobby Thomas struggled as the wrestling tournament got to be strenuous.



APRIL

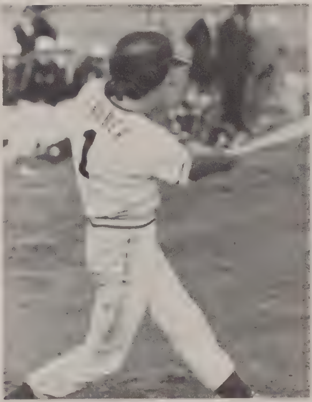
THE month showered with a new baseball season as Buddy Fauber reigned as number one. The seniors had already gotten ideas of graduation as caps and gowns arrived and the top ten percent of their class was named. The month was concluded with an assembly, featuring folk music, and an F.F.A. Banquet.

Yogi, Gene, Allen, and Harvey got ready for a new baseball season.



The top ten percent of the senior class was named.

Kim admired her senior cap and gown.



Buddy Fauber swung to start the Meyersdale game.

Students were presented an assembly program on folk music.

April held new experiences for many of our students. Among senior experiences was a trip to G.C.C. where they were given a guided tour. The senior band gave a concert for students, faculty, and parents. Mr. Weese's English class took a stab at politics when they held a debate on school issues.

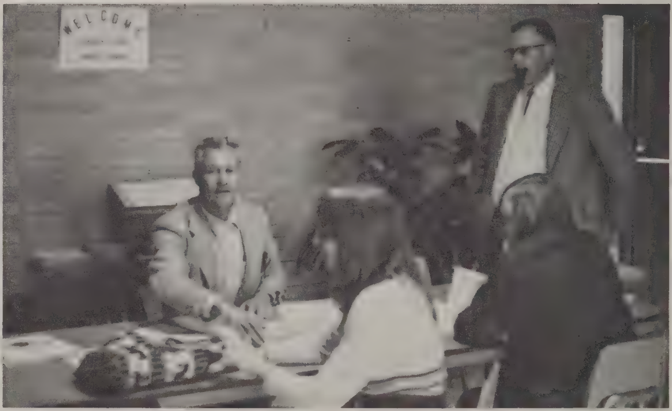
John Groer cross-examined Mike O'Brien as the debate continued.

Dr. Luther Shaw spoke to the seniors from Northern.

Mr. Weese's English class participated in a heated debate.

Mike is your MAN
(M.H.S)

Karen Fauber and Jeff Fratz learned about the courses available at G.C.C.



Seniors returned from their tour of G.C.C..

He was the best friend the Band ever had
He was the best friend I ever had

He walked among us for nineteen years and that time will never erode.

Melvin Schwing

Brenda, Connie, Denise, Sharon, and Patty modeled clothing they made in Home Economics class.

Mrs. Benyak was the hostess for the style show.

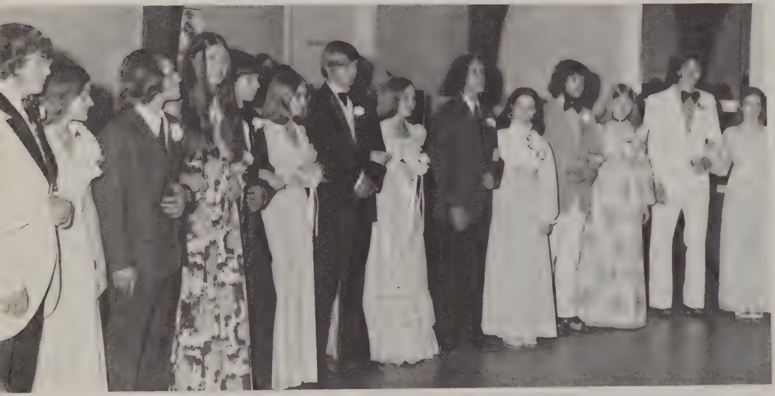
The Home Economics Department presented a style show entitled "Seasons in the Sun."

Sue Rodeheaver served refreshments at the style show.

MAY

Sunshine spread over the faces of those who attended the banquet.

Prom Queen candidates with escorts awaited the announcement.



WITH the theme, "Sunshine," the Jr.-Sr. Prom was the enlightening ray which brought hopes that future years would be brighter still.

Prom Queen, Linda Hollada, was presented roses.

A woodshop exhibit was displayed at the May P.T.S.A. meeting.

MANY awards were received in May. A special awards assembly was held in order to present these to students. At the Band Dinner special recognition was given to award recipients.

Mr. Harman took charge of the business meeting.

Phys. Ed. students demonstrated routine exercises to parents and onlookers during the Physical Education Show.

Ron Teets really flipped over Buddy Fauber.

Darl Kolb was M.C. at the awards assembly.

Stomachs and thoughts were filled during the senior picnic.

There were quiet moments for Kathy Sines and her friends, who remembered times past.

May flowers brought the Sr. picnic, a budding baseball team, and a somewhat wilting Nostalgia Day.

Allen Bach made "13" a lucky number for beating Southern on school time.

The baseball team was ready to go!

Things went better with Coke on Nostalgia Day.

"Don't believe anything you hear, and only half of what you see." That was the idea of our May Antrim Bureau show, with Mr. Nuckles and Goober.

Nostalgia's everyone, everywhere, and everything. Seniors agreed and participated in Nostalgia Day.

A major event of the Yearbook banquet: Miss Miller turned 21!??

"That cake sure was good!"

IN the merry, merry month of May, the yearbook staff held its annual dinner; the yearbooks they had worked so hard for had finally arrived.

May was eventful for the seniors. They held the Senior Dance in the cafeteria with music by "Friendly Neighbors." They were honored with a dinner prepared by the cafeteria staff. May 30 came, and the seniors had to say goodbye to school life.

Ron Teats concentrated on home plate.

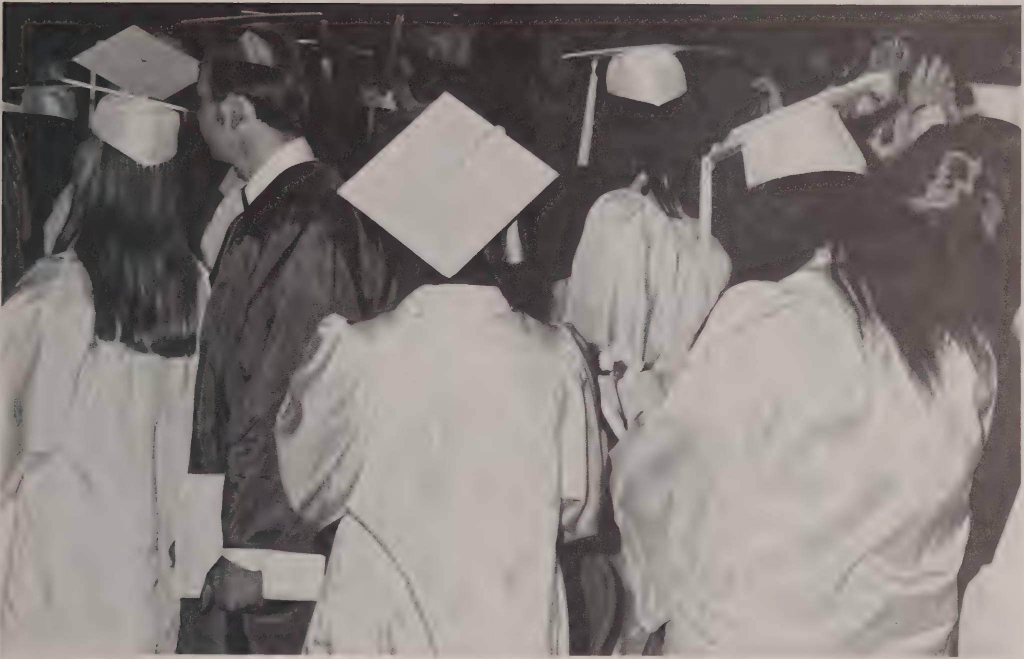
Carol Glotfelty and Skip Schwing were the proud recipients of the Danforth "I Dare You " Award.

JUNE

AS the long-awaited last month of school finally arrived, the school was filled with the feelings of pleasure, excitement and, in some cases, regret to see another school year end. Seniors were, of course, coming to the realization that their lives were about to be changed by taking another big step towards their future--GRADUATION. Underclassmen were, of course, anticipating next year when they would be one step farther into their future.

Seniors took their place of honor during the graduation exercises for the distinguished class of 1974.

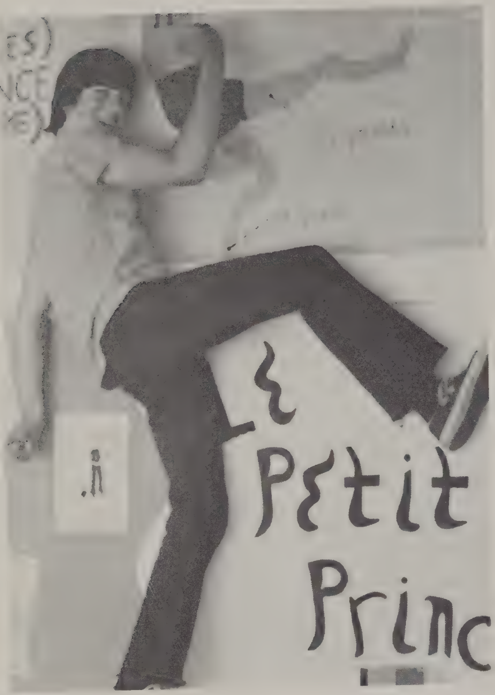
Anticipation showed in the eyes of Gene Rodeheaver, as he received the mantle from past senior class president Kathy Russell.



Seniors prepared themselves for their last walk through Northern as students.

Kathy Maust was proud to give her valedictory speech after twelve long years of hard work.

Distinguished guests looked on as another class set out to make their mark on the world.



Mike O'Brien was overjoyed to see school come to an end.

Orientation Day was just too much for this future student to face.

Preschoolers were entertained by French II students.

Sixth graders listened while Becky Beachy explained our yearbook.
